

8.30-9:15 Registration, tea and coffee

9:15- Conference opening

9:30 Jan Ifversen, Executive Secretary, the History of Political and Social Concepts Group, Aarhus University
Henrik Stenius, Director, Centre for Nordic Studies, Helsinki University

9:30- Plenary Session

11:45 Melvin Richter, Professor Emeritus, the City University of New York: Contested Concepts: Three Perspectives
Hans Erich Bödeker, Senior Research Scholar, Max Planck Institute for the History of Science, Berlin: Begriffsgeschichte and the History of Metaphors
Chair: Martin J. Burke, the City University of New York

11:45-13:00 Lunch

13:00- The Concept of Europe (Part One)

14:45 Chair: Jan Ifversen, Aarhus University

Uffe Jakobsen, Copenhagen University
Concepts of Europe, European Politics and the Eastern Enlargement of the European Union

Meike Schmidt-Gleim, University of Alessandria
Philosophical Perspectives on Europe throughout the Centuries

Claudia Wiesner, University of Marburg
The Concept of Europe and the EU

The Present and Future of Conceptual Historical Studies in South Korea

Chair: Myungkyu Park, Seoul National University

Seung-Cheol Song, Hallym University and Hallym Academy of Sciences
What can we do with conceptual history in Korea?

Chiyoung Kim, Hallym Academy of Sciences
A Study of “Munye”(literature and art): Its differentiation from “Mun”(literacy) in Korea

Haeng-hoon Lee, Hallym Academy of Sciences
How has ‘Hakmun’(learning) become converted into a modern concept? focused on ‘gyeogchi’ and ‘gungni’

14:45-15:00 Tea and coffee

15:00- The Concept of Europe (Part Two)

17:00 Chair: Claudia Wiesner, University of Marburg

Nere Basabe, Universidad Complutense de Madrid
On the Concept of Europe

Delmo de Oliveira Arguelhes, Centro Universitário de Brasília
Beneath the Valkyries’ Sky: Conceptions of Heroism, Honor and Chivalry of Fighter Pilots in the Great War (1914-18)

Tapani Turkka, University of Jyväskylä
On a Political Europe(an Union)

Rethinking the Conceptual History of Parliament(arism).

Chair: Henrik Stenius

Kari Palonen, University of Jyväskylä
Parliamentary Rhetoric and Conceptual Change at Westminster

Jonas Harvard, Mid-Sweden University
Parliamentary Opinion and the Public

14:45-15:00 Break

17:15- Plenary Session

18:30 Rolf Reichardt, Professor, University of Gießen: Visualisierung politisch-sozialer Schlagworte in der Bildpublizistik der Französischen Revolution
Chair, Willibald Steinmetz, University of Bielefeld

19:00 Reception, Finnish Institute (35-36 Eagle Street) welcome by director Raija Koli

9:15- Plenary Session

10:30 Javier Fernández Sebastián, Professor, Universidad del País Vasco: First Liberalisms in the Ibero-American World: Political Concepts, Metaphors and Identities.
Chair: Wyger Velema, University of Amsterdam

10:30-10:45 Tea and coffee

10:45- The Use of Concepts in Nation-State Formation and International Politics

12:30 Chair: Jörn Leonhard, University of Freiburg

David Mazella, University of Houston
Cynicism and the Fate of Persuasion in Contemporary Political Argument

Anthoula Malkopoulou, University of Jyväskylä
The Concept of Representativeness in French-Belgian Voting Debates

Hunmi Lee, Seoul National University
The Concept of 'Patriotism' in Korea during the Japanese Protectorate, 1905-1910

Gabriel Entin, EHESS, Paris/ University of Buenos Aires
The Concept of Liberty in Rio de la Plata: from Catholic Monarchy to the Independent Republic, 1776-1870

12:30-13:30 Lunch

13:30- New Theoretical and Methodological Challenges

15:00 Chair: Jan Ifversen, Aarhus University

Gonzalo Bustamante Kuschel, Adolfo Ibáñez University, Chile
The Contribution of Luhmann's Theory to Begriffsgeschichte in the Understanding of Changing Processes and Political Conflicts

Timo Pankakoski, University of Helsinki
Conflictual Concepts in Concrete Contexts: the Methodologized Schmittianism of Koselleck's Begriffsgeschichte

Neil Foxlee, University of Central Lancashire
Initiating a Dialogue: Critical Discourse Analysis, Corpus Linguistics and the History of Concepts

15:00-15:15 Break

Towards an Historical Semantics of Emotions (Part One)

Chair: Sinai Rusinek, the Hebrew University of Jerusalem

Margrit Pernau, Max Planck Institute for the History of Emotions, Berlin
An Entangled Conceptual History of Emotions; Britain and the Colonies since the 18th Century

Amnon Yuval, Hakibbutzim College of Education, Technology and Arts and Tel Aviv University
The Politicization of Sensibility in England during the Last Decades of the 18th century

Nicholas Lombardo, Cambridge University
Thomas Aquinas' Conceptualisation of Emotions: Passions, Affection and his Theological Project in Historical Context

Muhammad Sajjad, Max Planck Institute for Human Development, Berlin
Concepts of the Soul: the Indian Sufi Scholars in North India

Towards an Historical Semantics of Emotions (Part Two)

Chair: Margrit Pernau

Benno Gammerl, Max Planck Institute for Human Development, Berlin
From Politeness to Intimacy? A History of the Emotional Lexicon between Closeness and Distance

Uriel Heyd, University of Haifa and Royal Holloway University of London
Fear in the Eighteenth-Century Newspaper

Marcus Otto, Bielefeld University and Georg-Eckert-Institute in Braunschweig:
'Ressentiment' – The Genealogy of an Emotional Concept in French and German Discourse

15:15-16:45 Transfer and Translation of Concepts from One Region to Another and Within Regions
Chair: João Feres, Instituto Universitário de Pesquisas do Rio de Janeiro

Raymonde Monnier, CNRS-ENS/LSH Lyon
Translation, Transmission and the History of Concepts: the Theoretical and Empirical Significance of the Translation of Key Texts of the Republican Tradition in France at the End of the 18th century

Leonidas Karakatsanis, University of Essex
From Namings to Concepts to Signifiers: Mapping a Topography of “Friendship” in the Politics of Rapprochement.

Gustavo Santos Elpes, Federal University of Rio de Janeiro
The Concepts of constitution and political centralization in Brazil: A critical revision of Begriffsgeschichte.

The Study of Conceptual History in Korea
Chair: Young-sun Ha, Seoul National University

Young-sun Ha
On the Concept of ‘Peace’ in Korea

Myungkyu Park, Seoul National University
On the Concept of ‘Society’ in Korea

Chaesung Chun, Seoul National University
On the Concept of ‘Nation’ in Korea

16:45-17:00 Tea and Coffee

17:00-18:30 Conceptual Histories, Public Opinion and Identity Politics
Chair, Nere Basabe

Gonzalo Capellán de Miguel, University of Cantabria
Concepts and their “Historical Moments”: the Case of ‘Public Opinion’

Jean Terrier, University of Munster
Spirit, Character and Culture: Metaphors of the Social in a Conceptual Historical Perspective

Jin Nye Na, University of Essex
Nationalist-Oriented Women Activists go Global? The Politics and Identities of Women’s Movements in Post-colonial Contexts

Vibeke Erichsen, University of Bergen, Norway
The Pariah Concept: South Indian Origins and Western Reception

The Use of Concepts in Nation-State and Imperial Formation
Chair: Javier Fernández Sebastián

Erik Tängerstad, Gotland University
Fichte’s Ambiguous Concept ‘Nation’

Jani Marjanen, Renvall Institute, Helsinki University
From Economic to Linguistic Improvement: On the Language of Patriotism in Finland, ca. 1790–1840

Timo Särkkä, University of Jyväskylä
Imperial Power in Retrospect: British Perceptions of Empire, Imperial Power and Imperialism

Scheherezade Pinilla Cañadas, Universidad Complutense de Madrid
The Enthusiasm of Gabriel Araceli: the Spectator and the Nation in Benito Pérez Galdós’ Episodios Nacionales

19:30- Conference dinner at Hotel Russell (Russell Square London England, WC1B 5BE)

8:30 Departure for Oxford From Hotel Russell: 1-8 Russell Square London England, WC1B 5BE. The coach will leave at 9:30.

11:00-12:30 Plenary Session
Michael Freeden, Oxford University: Conceptual History, Ideology and Language
Chair, Hans Erich Bödeker

12:30-14:00 Lunch

14:00-15:00 Plenary Session
Jörn Leonhard, Professor, University of Freiburg: Concepts of War and Nation in Comparison
Chair, Melvin Richter

15:00-15:15 Break

15:15-16:30 Concepts in International Relations
Chair: Uffe Jakobsen

Patricia Springborg, Free University of Bolzano
Exporting Terror/Exporting Democracy: a False Homology

Roberto Farneti, Free University of Bolzano
Cleavage Lines in Global Politics

The Concept of Civilization (Part One)
Chair: Pim den Boer

Yuliy Assoyan, State University for the Humanities, Moscow
The Concept 'Civilization' in Russian Philosophical and Historical Discourse from the 1830s through the 1860s

Irene Zwiep, University of Amsterdam
From Pre-modern 'Yisrael' to Modern 'Judentum': the Science of Judaism and the Invention of Jewish Culture

Sergei Serebriany, State University for the Humanities, Moscow
The Adaptation of the European Wors 'Culture' and 'Civilization' in non-European Languages

16:30-16:45 Tea and coffee

16:45-17:45 Semantics of Culture and Politics
Chair: Patricia Springborg, Free University of Bolzano

Mostafa Younesie, Tarbiat Modares University, Tehran
The Historical Concept of 'Wisdom' in Persian Culture

Erdem Damar, University of Essex
Is there such a thing called 'Kemalism'?

The Concept of Civilization (Part Two)
Chair, Pim den Boer

Galina Zvereva, State University for the Humanities, Moscow
The Concept 'Civilization' in post-Soviet Political and Public discourse: Russian Ways of "Nationalizing"

Pablo Sánchez León, Universidad Complutense de Madrid
Specifying a National Sattelzeit: Decadence and Regeneration as Organizing Concepts for a Dictionary of Modernity in Spain

18:00 Departure for London